

Job description

Nucor Systems is currently seeking Irrigation Service Technicians with a minimum of 2 years experience to assist with the seasonal maintenance and repair of Large-Scale Commercial Irrigation Systems (Athletic Parks, New Developments, Storm Water Pump Stations) within the City of Calgary and surrounding areas.

Responsibilities include:

- Upgrade your residential irrigation experience into a commercial irrigation career.
- Troubleshooting wiring/electrical/hydraulic/mechanical problems
- Set, adjust and straighten sprinklers
- Repairing PVC/HDPE Line Breaks
- Identifying and repairing/replacing defective system components
- Fusing 2" – 12" Pipe
- Spring Start up and Winterization
- Operating Equipment including $\frac{3}{4}$ -1 ton trucks with trailer
- Excavation/Trenching/Demolition
- Reading "as-built" Drawings, making corrections if necessary
- Low voltage wiring to system controllers
- Working independently and as a Team

Benefits of this Position:

- 44-60 hours/week. OT paid. All weather work.
- Interchanging roles/tasks within the company
- Lots of diversity within responsibilities, position will challenge various skill sets
- Gain valuable knowledge and experience applicable to many trades and industries
- All professional training is paid for by employer, including safety courses and certificates
- Competitive wages based on experience
- Potential for company truck
- Medical/Dental/RRSP benefits

Compensation and Supplemental Information:

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: $23.00-$39.00 per hour (dependent on experience)

Expected hours: 44 – 60 per week

Additional pay:

- Overtime pay

Benefits:

- Extended health care
- Vision care

Schedule:

- 44 to 60 hours per week
- Monday to Friday (Saturdays as required)

Work Location: In person